CodeRED® Emergency Notification System Test

The Village of La Grange will be utilizing the CodeRED® Emergency Notification System on Tuesday, February 6, 2012 to call the entire community. The message that is being delivered directs recipients to the Village of La Grange website to add additional contact numbers, and it also asks that recipients spread the word by mentioning the system to family, friends and neighbors.

The calls will be in the morning and afternoon beginning at 10:00 AM and will continue until the entire database has been attempted. This call will give Village of La Grange personnel the chance to operate the system as if there has been a community wide disaster. It will also serve as a means of verifying the integrity of the current database and eliminating any non-functioning telephone numbers in the system. The call will display on the phone either as "unknown caller" or phone number 999-911-9999.

Police Chief Michael Holub suggests that all individuals and businesses take the time to visit the Village's website and add contact information to include cellular phones and other non-traditional phones as well as email and text addresses.

If your contact information is not in the database, you will not receive a call when an urgent message is sent. In particular, businesses should register, as well as individuals who have unlisted phone numbers, who have changed their phone number recently, and those who use a cellular phone exclusively or have VoIP phones (such as Vonage) as their primary numbers.

Chief Holub urges citizens and businesses to visit the Village of La Grange homepage and follow the CodeRED® link on the left side of the page. Those without Internet access may call 708-579-2333 x2258, Monday through Friday from 9am to 4pm. Required information includes a street address (physical address, no P.O. boxes) for location purposes and a primary phone number. Additional phone numbers, email and text addresses may also be entered.

More information about the CodeRED® system is available on the website and any questions should be directed to the La Grange Police Department at 798-579-2333.
