Dear Parents,

On Monday, November 21, we are holding parent teacher conferences. At some grade levels, where students see more than one teacher for several curriculum areas, parents will receive an invitation, from their child's homeroom teacher, to share any questions that they may have regarding any of the content areas. Homeroom teachers will gather these answers and be able to address all curricular areas with parents at the time of the regularly scheduled conference.

On conference day, the Special Subject Teachers (Art, Music, PE, Spanish) along with our Support Staff Teachers (Interventionists, Resource Teachers, Speech and Language Pathologists, etc.) will also be available to meet with parents. If you wish to meet with any of these teachers, please e-mail or call them in advance to set up an appointment. Drop in appointments may not be available. This is an optional opportunity to meet with other staff if you choose to do so.

We hope that meeting with your child's homeroom teacher after this first trimester will give both parents and staff the opportunity to celebrate progress and set goals for the remainder of the year.

Thank you for being part of this process as together we assure a successful year for each student

If you have any questions, comments or concerns about conference day, please call me.

Sincerely,

Mary Tavegia
